Gun Control Argumentative Essay Outline

Write the Statement of Title

The title is the first and most important thing to write in your essay. Write down the statement which you have chosen.

Introduction

The introduction is based on the

- Opening statement
- Background of the study
- Thesis Statement

After writing all these things, you can consider your introduction to be completed.

Body Paragraph

You can just start off your body paragraph by simply providing some background of the topic. You can add some more important details within this paragraph.

Claim 1

In this part you can write your claim number 1 and give several pieces of evidence.

Claim 2

You can provide another claim in this part and support it with evidence.

Counter Argument

Some researchers will have an entirely opposite opinion regarding your claim. You can address them in this part and provide some reasons as well.

Conclusion

This is the last part of the essay therefore the argument will be concluded.